LBA Signature Cocktails

Transatlantic Prohibition 8.00

With the US prohibition laws leading to incredible ingenuity regarding cocktails, this refreshing blend of Calvados, Mint and Lime is how we think the French might have handled it.

Speyside Alexander 8.50

With France being a safe haven to many a Scot, we pay tribute with this faithful marrying of a French classic with Scotland's national pride.

Au Citron 9.00

A martini with a refreshing twist, using fine French vodka, fresh lemon, and a good splash of vermouth. It's wet, it's smooth and oh so refreshing.

Cosmarnier 8.00

We all know the Cosmopolitan, our twist provides a little added oomph and depth with the inclusion of Grand Marnier alongside the Vodka and Cranberry. Still refreshing, but with an added dimension.

Southern Sidecar 9.50

Armagnac is often described as the rougher of the French brandies, but that's what makes it great alongside the Lemon and Triple Sec that creates this powerful, yet cleansing cocktail.

St Clements Gin 8.00

'Oranges and lemons says the bells of..' Well you know the rest. The refreshing classic can only be improved with good measure of Tanqueray.

LBA Champagne Cocktails

LBA 75 11.00

Scotland's currently got a bit of a love affair with gin, started off by Hendricks. So, we've paid homage by bringing this refreshing gin, elevated with St Germain elderflower to add a new dimension to our Champagne.

Champagne Contemporary 11.00

Classics are classics for a reason, but the revolutionaries are here. Bringing a Sugar Cube soaked in Orange Bitters and Armagnac to the Champagne table.

LBA Mimosa 11.00

Out with the Buck's Fizz and in with luxurious Mimosa. By fortifying our champagne with Grand Marnier and Cognac and softening it with just a splash of orange, it's still refreshing but with much more flavour.
